

Pandas class: Autumn 2

In Art, the children have been developing their printing and painting skills. We used a variety of materials to print and paint, trying to create different effects. We also focused on pattern- using printing and other media (such as pastels).

The visit from Norwich Puppet Theatre inspired lots of creative puppet making (and performances!) in class. The children used different materials and techniques to make their very own puppets.

