

Pandas class – Spring 2 half term

In March, we were visited by an author, Gillian McClure. She has written lots of children's books, including 'The Little White Sprite.'

We used puppets to explore the old, hollow tree before we made our own tree pictures using charcoal.

Our story for International Book Week was 'Room on the Broom' by Julia Donaldson.

We enjoyed making our own artworks, using paint mixing (shades and tints), collage and pastels. They looked amazing!

We did lots of drama to support our learning: flying on broomsticks and making “four headed creatures”!

“And whoosh, they were gone!”

Don't we look fabulous!
