

Parents Evening Feedback from Y1 & Y2 2018

My son is excited to go to school.
My son loves his new class. He is still getting to know everyone in his class. He is really enjoying the daily mile and PE.
My daughter is very happy and confident. She loves school and is on the school council.
We feel that our daughter has settled in really well and is happy most days to go to school. She is always smiley and happy coming out of school and has lots of stories about activities and new friends. Teachers are always friendly and supportive too.
Really pleased with how the start of term kicked off. Child is settling in brilliantly and loving school life. Happy child – Happy parent!!
Very happy with everything. All very organised. Staff very friendly. Traffic light system seems to work very well. My daughter couldn't be happier. Thank you very much.
Our son has settled better than we knew. He has just had a fantastic Parents evening report. The teachers make all the difference. Bravo!
Our daughter appears to have settled in well. She talks about her friends which is lovely as there were concerns about her being shy. She seems to be enjoying school very much but is very tired at the weekends. All in all a good start.
My daughter is settling in very well and really enjoying her time at school. Thank you!
My son just loves school. He has settled in really well. Reading has come along so well! Thank you!
My son loves his new group and seems to have more friends and he feels better in himself.
My son has enjoyed all the new things he does and is enjoying every day.
Really, really impressed with the progress my daughter has made in Year 2 already. More independent and such a willingness to join in with her peers. Very happy.
My son seems very happy in his new class and we are seeing great improvements in his reading and writing. Thank you all very much.
My daughter is enjoying Year 2 and has started to love learning.
My son has settled in really well. Miss Gook is great! We have a plan for the future. Many thanks.
Really well!!
We think our son has settled in really well. Lovely to hear that he is making new friends.
My daughter loves school especially making bread and other craft activities. She says she has made lots of friends and looks forward to going to school after the weekend.
I feel my daughter has settled in OK. She struggles in the mornings to go to school but really enjoys it when she is there.
My daughter seems to be settling well. She always comes out of school smiling and says that she's had a good day. She is pleased to have Mrs Clennell as her teacher again this year and I think that has helped her in the transition into Year 1.
My son seems very happy to be in Year 2 and is proud to be the oldest boy in school! He speaks positively about the learning he is doing in his class and has expressed that he is very happy to have Ms Gardner as his teacher for a second year.
My son has settled in really well and is loving school. His favourite things are lunch and playing outside.
She has settled in lovely and really enjoys school.
My child is settled in his new class. I am very pleased about his excitement and interest of going to school. Thanks to the staff for such efforts for my son. Regards.
My son has settled in really well. He was tired and a little tearful at the beginning of term but not since. He thoroughly enjoys school and Year 1.
We feel our son has settled in really well. He's really excited and enjoys school. He shares some of the things that he's done during the day and the Tapestry system is really good to see what he has been doing.
My son loves school and is excited every morning to go to school.

My son appears to have settled comfortably into Year 2. He is thriving on the learning opportunities which build on his and STEM interests and focus . We are grateful for your contribution to his whole learning experience.
My daughter has settled well. She is positive and excited to attend each day. We are pleased with her smooth transition. Thank you as ever for your support.
My son has loved the Year 2 learning so far. He is a very sociable boy so a new year group doesn't faze him.
My son has settled in really well.
Transition was fantastic from preschool to reception . He enjoys school. No worries here!
I'm very happy because the children are getting wiser. Every day when he comes home he tells me what he did today and where he played with his classmates. I am very grateful to schools and teachers for using all means to inform parents of everything they should know. I feel at ease because I won't miss any more important information. Thank you for all things!
Year 1 was daunting for my son as we had a fantastic long summer and he wasn't really interested in reading. But now he's back he's more willing to read more. He is very fond of both his wonderful teachers.
My son seems to have settled in well. He talks positively about his teacher and enjoying reading and counting. Loves drums and his sports .
My daughter is a little bit clingy at drop off but comes home so excited and tells us everything about her day – from the daily mile to PE game 'ooh la la', what she had for lunch, making bread, snacks, counting and rhyming words . She seems very content and happy.
My child has been settling in very well. He is very happy to come in every day and is also very excited about it.
Settled in well. Enjoying it. But really missing Mrs Clennell.
My son is really enjoying Year 2 so far – he has settled in well and is enjoying the work.
I think my daughter has settled in very well and the transition from Reception has been very smooth .
We think our son has settled in very well into Year 1 Pandas. He looks forward to going to school and seeing his friends.
Settled in very well and adapted to all routines well.
Once I have gone he enjoys himself.
Very happy! Leopards is a brilliant class and Miss Gook is a brilliant teacher!
My child has settled in very well. Enjoys the time at school, always happy.
He has settled in brilliantly and loves coming to school.
My daughter found it hard at first. She finds change hard but she is now starting to get used to it. She was very proud of herself when she got a certificate for trying very hard .
My son has settled into Year 2 really well. He is always happy to come to school and is always happy when he comes out of school. He doesn't tell me much about what he does in his day other than he's on green and what he's had for lunch – but this is normal for my son. Thanks.
My daughter has settled in really well! She is really enjoying school and gets really excited about coming in.
I think my daughter has settled very well. She is happy and enjoying every day at school.
My son is thoroughly enjoying his new year group. He wants to go at the weekend as well! Thank you for your support.
My daughter seems to have settled into year 1 really well. She is proud to be one of the bigger children in the school. She talks a lot about what she does at school. What she has learnt. She enjoys learning. I don't have any concerns or issues, she seems very happy going into school and has some lovely friends she talks about at home. We have enjoyed doing the 'word of the week' homework together and thinking which animal we could pick – it's nice to share that together .
My daughter has surprised me how well she has settled into reception. She enjoys coming in every day and is starting to tell me more about her day. She loves getting all the stickers and proudly displays them at home .
My daughter has settled really well into Year 2. Though she has found the work more challenging she always tries her best. She really enjoys having 2 teachers, forest school and reading .

My daughter has settled so well into Year 2. She is loving school.
Year 1 – settled in really well. Was a little concerned that staying with the same teacher that it might feel the same as reception but it actually helped him. We were worried we would go backwards but the first few weeks have been great. He loves Year 1!
Reception – settled in well – a bit unsettled during the first few weeks with the too-ing and fro-ing at different times but soon got the routines. Reception team in Tigers are fantastic!
My son has settled in really well. His is really happy to come to school every day. He enjoys of it. He also likes the hot dinners. He loves being with his friends from preschool and making new friends. He loves the independence and getting his own dinner.
Really happy with how well our son has settled in. He's been coming home with gold a lot and got a reward that just says it all! Very proud!
She has settled in very well and can't wait to get to school every morning. Very proud Mummy & Daddy.
My child has settled in Year 2. He is loving school and making more friends.
My daughter really enjoys her time at school. Settled really well, eager to go to school every morning. Teachers are doing a really great job! Thank you.
She loves school and I think she has settled in really well. She enjoys talking to me about her day and has made lots of new friends.
She has settled in really well – as she did in reception. She's excited each morning to come to school.
My daughter seems to have settled in really well and enjoys coming to school every day. I would like to say thank you for helping her with everything she has been through the last year and making it easy for her to settle. Many thanks.
He really likes his class and I think he's settled well.
She has settled in incredibly well and loves school. She enjoys the routine in the mornings.
She has settled in really well. The teachers have been very supportive and made the children feel very welcome.
Brilliant! He is really enjoying Year 1.
He has settled in really well and loving school.
She has settled in very well after missing the first week. She has really enjoyed learning new letters, words, etc.
He has settled in very well. No problems getting him to school, in fact he loves it!
There have been a couple problems but hope it will work out ok.
'I like playing with my friends. I like making stuff. I like phonics because you play games. Me and Mrs Cletheroe play a game with clues – you have to say if it's an animal or person'.
She has settled in very well. Her reading has developed particularly well.
My child is enjoying school every day.
My child has settled in really well now. She talks a lot about her day and what she has been up to. Her confidence has grown and she is going to try a drama class. She is also enjoying forest school.
Cannot thank Miss Gook and teaching staff enough for all their ongoing support. Thank you.
She has settled very well in her school and become very friendly with her peers. She enjoys getting up in the morning for school – she seems happy with herself when picked up from her class.
We are very pleased how well our child has settled in Year 2 and with her attitude to learning.
Our son is settling in well and seems happy. We had a few concerns getting started but all seems well now.
She was sad that her best friends were not in her class. Other than that she is adaptable to change and happy she is in Year 2 and looking forward to learning more.
Really well – I've found this year's transition easier for both boys – Reception to Year 1 and Year 1 to Year 2.
Our daughter seems fine at school. She said she hasn't got in trouble at all so that's good! She likes Ms Gardner because she is fun.
My son has settled in his new year group really well. He says it's harder but still enjoys coming to school to learn.

Our daughter has adapted to school life very well. She enjoys being able to make choices, ie what she has for lunch each day.

Our son is getting there. He loves to come to school and often tells me he has had a lovely day. He loves his lunchtime and playtime.

We are really pleased that our daughter has settled well into Year 2. It is great to see her growing in confidence and hear that she is putting herself forward in class.

I feel that my son has settled well and was really pleased with Parent Evening. I really hope that he will get back on target with sitting and listening to be able to move on.

Very well, she is very happy being more independent at the beginning of the day. She is coming along very well with her learning.

Absolutely brilliant! Made lots of new friends and enjoying everything!

My son has settled in well. Think he surprised himself! I think he will do well as he is already proud of what he's achieved in such a short time.
